

REGISTRATION: ONLINE HIGH SCHOOL BIBLE COURSE (a Social Studies Elective)

Parent/guardian must give their written consent to the appropriate school by completing this form and forwarding it by fax or mail to the person designated below.

The courses are offered virtually. There is no cost to enroll in the course, including needed software. Students are responsible for providing their own device and internet access.

Name of the released-time entity: Christian Learning Centers of Greenville County (CLC) - The requirements for participation are as follows:

- The student registration window for CLC online courses offered next school term is January through March of the current year. Enrollments must be approved by the school counselor. After approval, all student work must be completed in a timely manner. The deadline for dropping a CLC online course without penalty is 5 weekdays after the course start date for students attending schools on the block schedule and 10 weekdays after the course start date for students attending schools on the traditional schedule. Please see penalties noted in CLC drop policy.
- The parent/guardian understands that no public funds are expended, and no school personnel are involved with providing the instruction.
- Students will be required to attend at least five site events and participate in a service learning project.
- Up to two Carnegie units of credit can be awarded toward the requirements for the receipt of a South Carolina high school diploma.
- The course will be graded as a pass/fail course and will not be counted in the student's GPA.
